

Why Consider Conway's First Baptist Church? Compared to some churches, we may not be normal!

Want to get to know people who are diverse in education, vocation and personal interests?
Try First Baptist.

Want to be a part of a congregation that is not the youngest, not the flashiest, not the coolest, and not necessarily the closest to your neighborhood but loves God, makes room for God-given differences and would rather walk with you down tough roads than judge you when you're down? Try First Baptist.

Want to grow in your faith as you walk alongside people who are not perfect but are grateful for forgiveness, mercy and second-chances?
Try First Baptist.

Want to meet people across the generations and worship alongside one another?
Try First Baptist.

Want to worship in the only sanctuary where you'll hear one of the finest of pipe organs and a smoking, jazzy, rocking Hammond B-3 organ?
Try First Baptist.

Want to sing your favorite hymns and the best of what is new in worship music? Try First Baptist.

Thirsty to experience the grace of God and already know more than you want about the guilt of God? Try First Baptist.

Want to find affirmed your place of service for God in the world, including your primary calling as a student, parent, business person, teacher, farmer, medical professional — you get the idea

— and help send God's love around the world?
Try First Baptist.

Want to find an adult bible study where you will be appreciated as a person and inspired to know
God by using your head as well as your heart?
Try First Baptist.

Want to be more biblical in sharing leadership
between men and women, including women
serving as deacons — just like in the Bible?
Try First Baptist.

Want your children to learn to sing in quality children's choirs and learn the importance of caring mission outreach around the world?
Try First Baptist.

Want to learn to dance at church youth camp?
Try First Baptist!
